

Hall Ticket

Second Semester MCA (2025-27) Degree Examination - March 2026

Register Number : 25204057 Program : Master of Computer Applications
Name of Student : TOM GEO Semester : Second Semester

| Course Code | Course Name                         | Signature of the Invigilator |
|-------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| MCA201      | Operations Research                 |                              |
| MCA202      | Java Programming                    |                              |
| MCA203      | Agile Development and Case tools    |                              |
| MCA204      | Design and Analysis of Algorithms   |                              |
| MCA205      | Artificial Intelligence with Gen AI |                              |
| MCA206      | Full stack development              |                              |

Signature of the Candidate

Date: 13/03/2026

Controller of Examination

INSTRUCTION TO CANDIDATES

1. Candidates must bring INSTITUTION IDENTITY CARD and the ADMISSION TICKET on all days of the Examination and shall produce them for inspection by the Room Superintendent.
2. Candidates will not be permitted to leave the room of the Examination before the completion of 'ONE HOUR' from the commencement of examination.
3. Register number shall be written in the space provided. Candidates shall not write their Registration Number, Name, Signature or any identification code on any part of the Answer Book.
4. Candidates must ensure that paper(s) are not detached from the Answer Book.
5. Any attempt or use of external assistance by the candidate during the examination shall be considered academic dishonesty. The following are considered unacceptable examination behaviour: communicating with fellow students during exam, copying material from another student's exam, allowing another student to copy from an exam, impersonation, possession or use of unauthorized notes, electronic gadgets, cellular phones, or other materials, All other acts which directly or indirectly can help the candidate during the exams, borrowing or lending of materials and/or a behaviour that defeats the intent of the exam will be construed as unacceptable examination behaviour. All acts of above mentioned nature shall invite disciplinary actions up to debarring of the student from appearing for examinations for three subsequent chances.
6. Permission to appear for the examination and the subsequent publication of the result are 'conditional' for those students who have not paid College Fee/ Minimum required attendance or those who have not submitted all the required documents for admission.